

Financial sources 2023/2024

September 2025

Agora Industry is independent of corporate and political interests. Our work is funded by grants from private foundations and public institutions. We do not carry out commissioned research.

Philanthropic funds		2023	2024
Aspen Global Change Institute (AGCI) / CRUX	Research programme on the decarbonisation of industry in various OECD and ODA countries	€ 2.545.472,94	€ 3.485.423,90
Climate Imperative Foundation	Programme on the German and European energy system transformation		€ 1.041.469,42
	Programme on the decarbonisation of the industry sector in Germany, the EU and China	€ 1.118.314,22
Climateworks Foundation	Programme on the decarbonisation of the industry sector in China	€ 180.043,11	–
European Climate Foundation	Programme for international trade in industrial products, including steel and chemicals, and for the future of industry in Europe		€ 281.497,61
	Analysis on global industrial trade and its specific implications on the decarbonisation of the steel sector	€ 374.285,65
Bertelsmann Stiftung	Programme on transformation prospects for German industry	–	€ 20.000,00
Total philanthropic funds		€ 4.218.115,92	€ 4.828.390,93

Public funds		2023	2024
Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH	Several international research programmes on the transformation of the electricity system and on questions related to hydrogen economy		€ 1.106.279,68
	Research programme on the hydrogen economy with a focus on Latin America and Africa	€ 608.683,09
Projektträger Jülich (Forschungszentrum Jülich GmbH)	Research on sector coupling and hydrogen technologies	€ 155.962,00	€ 126.569,77
Total public funds		€ 764.645,09	€ 1.232.849,45
Total philanthropic funds		€ 4.218.115,92	€ 4.828.390,93
Total		€ 4.982.761,01	€ 6.061.240,38

Agora Industry is part of the non-profit legal entity of the Agora Think Tanks gGmbH. Under the umbrella of the Agora Think Tanks, the three non-profit think tanks Agora Industry, Agora Energiewende and Agora Agriculture work towards the common goal of climate neutrality. To this end, the Agora Think Tanks develop scientifically sound and politically feasible solutions. In 2023, Agora Think Tanks gGmbH received funds totalling around 18,3 million euros and 2024 around 27,2 million euros.

The figures presented here represent the funds received during the fiscal year. In addition, the annual financial statements are prepared in accordance with the German Commercial Code (HGB) based on the accounting standard IDW RS HFA 21.