

Financial sources 2024/2025

As of September 2026

Agora Industry is independent of corporate and political interests. Our work is funded by grants from private foundations and public institutions. We do not carry out commissioned research.

Philanthropic Funds		2024	2025
CRUX Alliance LLC	Research programme on the decarbonisation of industry in various OECD and ODA countries	3.485.423,90 €	3.777.567,78 €
Climate Imperative Foundation	Programme on the German and European energy system transformation	1.041.469,42 €	–
Climateworks Foundation	Programme on the decarbonisation of China's industry	–	381.970,97 €
European Climate Foundation	Programme for international trade in industrial products, including steel and chemicals, and for the future of industry in Europe	281.497,61 €	668.583,95 €
Bertelsmann Stiftung	Programme on transformation prospects for German industry	20.000,00 €	–
Bertelsmann Stiftung	Repayment within closed projects	–	2.682,23 €
Total Philanthropic Funds		4.828.390,93 €	4.825.440,47 €

Public funds		2024	2025
Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH	International research program on questions related to the hydrogen economy	–	322.164,03 €
	Several international research programs on the transformation of the electricity system and questions related to the hydrogen economy	1.106.279,68 €	–
Projektträger Jülich (Forschungszentrum Jülich GmbH)	Research on sector coupling and hydrogen technologies	126.569,77 €	163.227,15 €
Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH	Repayment within closed projects	–	1.080,98 €
Total Public Funds		1.232.849,45 €	484.310,20 €
Total		6.061.240,38 €	5.309.750,67 €

Agora Industry is part of the non-profit legal entity of the Agora Think Tanks gGmbH. Under the umbrella of the Agora Think Tanks, the three non-profit think tanks Agora Energiewende, Agora Industry and Agora Agriculture work towards the common goal of climate neutrality. To this end, the Agora Think Tanks develop scientifically sound and politically feasible solutions. In 2024, Agora received funds totaling around 27,2 million euros and 2025 around 22,8 million euros.

The figures presented here represent the funds received during the fiscal year. In addition, the annual financial statements are prepared in accordance with the German Commercial Code (HGB) based on the accounting standard IDW RS HFA 21.